There was a Special Session of Korein Temple Ancient Order of the Mystic Shrine held at Casper on Washiel Job. March 10th, 1916.

One hundred and twelve Novices, were initiated into the mysteries of the order; five hundred Shriners were . present and witnessed the Pilgrimage over the hot sands.

The sessions of the Chapter, Com-mandery and Shrine were well at-tended by Masons from all parts of the state, and some visitors from other states were present. The Casper Masons were royal hosts and served delicious banquets for each of the bodies in their temple, which is large, beautiful and com-which is large, beautiful and com-motious. The next sessions are to be held at Steridan in March, 1917. Mr. Pugh returned Sunday and reports Casper prospering wonder-fully, and that oil shipments from that point is two hundred cars daily. The Standard and Mid-West oil companies both have large refineries there.

There were two bands and a parade, which extended four blocks. A special train to and from Casper, was provided for the Masons.

Mrs. Keyes Dead.

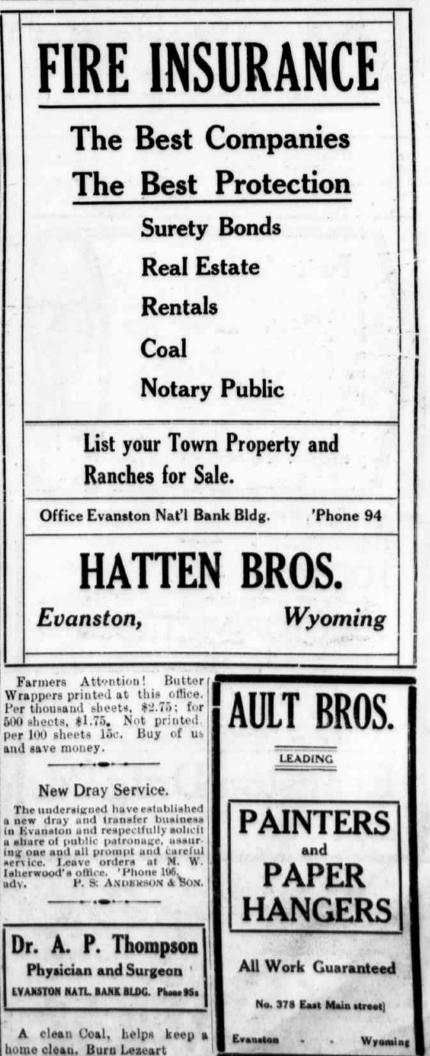

Mrs Jennie Little Keyes, wife of Bishop Alma Keyes of Uintah, died at the family residence last Sunday afternoon. Death was due to carci-monia of the stomach, from which the deceased had been suffering since November, 1915. She had been confined to her room for the next Neb., March 14, 1916.—The week opened with rather a liberal supply of cattle on the market, receipts to-talling 329 loads or 8,200 head, with a tendency on the part of dressed beef buyers to shade the price a triffe beef buyers to shade the price at triffe
